

I Dream...

- ☞ That those of us in our later, elder years may share the wisdom aging before it is too late.
- ☞ A community that is geographically separate which cohesively responds to those in need
- ☞ Of creating a way to bring Nano and the Presentation mission to young people and families around the world
- ☞ of a Presentation underground railroad that will have Presentation people at the boarder that will be able to have groups in various places to assist those who need help in immigration/migration
- ☞ that we see ourselves Presentation people being influencers, so the values that we hold dear to the example of Nano Nagle whether grand and wide-ranging to anyone who shows kindness, generosity and attention to the needs of those we may be with at the moment
- ☞ that we will take the worldwide efforts for diversity, inclusion and equity and apply those to all of our Presentation people so that we can widen our influence throughout the world
- ☞ of creating space where our Presentation way of life can flourish as well as life can flourish
- ☞ that the story of Nano and the charism of the Presentation sisters grows and touches the world in new ways, through prayer, community and justice work, so that we all can become influencers in the world
- ☞ of inter-congregational, inter-city, inter-group associate activities and justice activities and actions
- ☞ that all might have life and life to the full. I believe that this is Nano's charism of hospitality that all people have a home and are safe.
- ☞ For the next generation of Presentation sister to be in the context of a rich family of Presentation people
- ☞ of Presentation connections without boundaries
- ☞ of a new reality of Presentation people that reflects the amazing diversity of God's creation in culture, language, etc., that is on fire with God's love and Nano's love especially for the poor and the work\ of justice.
- ☞ of a structure that allows for gatherings , pilgrimages, immersion experiences shared resources, and talent and inclusion of all who carry the charism
- ☞ That the IPA can become a Presentation center for justice and spirituality known by everyone in the world and that the name Nano Nagle would be as recognized as the name Mother Teresa

- ☞ That Presentation hospitality evolve into deep partnerships with all who share the legacy of Nano in their hearts and actions
- ☞ That we will widen the space of our tent and reach out to more persons to join us as Presentation people
- ☞ Of a society at peace with one another responsive to the needs of the poor, women and the marginalized
- ☞ That we may live beyond the margins with courage and humility to be with those made poor, especially those who do not have a home
- ☞ That eventually connections can also be made with Presentation people, Friends of Nano across our global community to understand the great impact around the world the and to get that spark of inspiration globally of what we can do when we are connected
- ☞ That the IPA becomes a new PBVM People Congregation that creates a new journey for all to collaborate in promoting Nano's vision for service in any part of the world. The congregation would consist of vowed and non- vowed members who share equally in its creation and leadership of the congregation
- ☞ Of many hands, many hearts and many colors continuing together for a vibrant mission for the world
- ☞ That we may act locally, more for justice and be supported by Presentation people at large
- ☞ That the spirit of Presentation people we are experiencing here may continue to grow, perhaps be structured so that Nano's dream of service and justice be extended and flourish
- ☞ Of inspiring others to see the world the way we do as Presentation people and bring Nano's charism to those with whom we interact
- ☞ Of regularly coming together to continue building relationships among us carry out nano's vision for society
- ☞ That our efforts to educate young women will be continue through Presentation High School in San Francisco and Presentation College in SD
- ☞ That the conference be the vehicle that will give birth to Lisa Olson's dream
- ☞ Of a beloved community, a diverse international community moving forward through collaboration. Nano's movement, her charism in order to fulfill our core values of partnership with the Divine, care of creation and passion for the poorest - another form of Trinity.
- ☞ Of living a deliberate life of going one pace beyond what already is, of service opportunities that I can do and support that I can offer to those in need, of stepping outside of my comfort zone and welcoming others to do the same, of respectfully knowing my place but then challenging my place. of giving my life over to worthy pursuits.
- ☞ of the continuation of these conversations when we return home, that these conversation not be valued by those who may not have been with us here

- ☞ Of our larger community (IPA and LCWR) that we discern together and grow in the ministry of justice and climate change issues and justice in our own sense of democracy
- ☞ Of highlighting stories of the great works of our Presentation associates, sister and Presentation people through social media, so a greater community can be inspired by their work
- ☞ Of Nano and always burning for the needy and see and they can come to us
- ☞ Of our Friends of Nano children's' group continue to find ways to carry the lantern and that other children's groups develop who will carry on Nano's mission
- ☞ Of a life balanced with prayer, contemplation and presence in our world and to provide to the world a source of refreshment, service and healing. My dream visualized as a traveling field hospital when we go out to meet the needs of the people with companionship and skills and talents, modeled on our service experience here
- ☞ That we be the fires that ignite into flame and sparks that in raise the fire within the hearts of Presentation people to work with the poor, marginalized, those at the border, women and children and each other
- ☞ Of gathering younger Presentation people together to share, dream and support one another.
- ☞ That the joy born of belonging, loving and being loved be expended to all people and there where is isolation and unmet needs, we be present'
- ☞ That one day, when we speak of being Presentation people we will no longer make distinction among vowed members, associates, collaborators, friends and other but that we will be one as Presentation people
- ☞ A kinder, gentler world, less violence, greed and hate. More gentleness, concern for others, tolerance, acceptance and non-judgment
- ☞ That we deeply see the needs of our world and that we live so deeply in the spirit that we can say that the kingdom of God is being fulfilled among you today
- ☞ of new members vowed and associate ministers responding to the call to help carry Nano's vision into our future
- ☞ Serving more families through Nano's charism so that they not only survive but thrive
- ☞ Working on the local level and bringing my professional life and faith life and creating a one-to-one faith-based mentoring program wherein young people are exposed to the Gospel and Nano's story. Where they can learn kindness and hospitality and help them be in better place to make healthy choices
- ☞ Of a world where Nano's charism and values will be lived through respect and reverence for all of creation and all that is, that we will be recognized by our presence as Presentation people
- ☞ The vine which is Nano's charism and its implementation in times and places will expand and grow roots in new ways and new places. I believe that God has done something new in us recently in our Presentation people who are full of the life and inspiration of Nano. We also have a new venue to grow and spread the vine which is virtual reality

- ☞ Of a unity of Presentation hearts strengthen through the avenues already in existence so that Nano's lanterns shines in all corners of need
- ☞ Of practical and concrete solutions to complex canonical problems around the legacy of Presentation education, of ensuring that educational spaces that are forming Presentation people will have the intentional vision to insure the legacy will continue
- ☞ That our Presentation people in San Antonio grow in number and diversity and become unity in a plan and purpose to follow Nano's dream
- ☞ Of a united and sustainable North American structure where a Presentation story be available to all Presentation people to provide resources to assure so that all can thrive long after I am gone
- ☞ Of one Presentation people, all of us believers carrying the light of Nano and recommend putting financial, spiritual, and emotional resources to create a North American Association so we can bring that light to the world. Empower with every possible resource to see it take root.
- ☞ Of more gatherings where we come and one Presentation people where we come around one common concern so these are not just topics shared at breakfast
- ☞ Of an organic, fluid, shape-shifting network of energy hubs of Presentation people where there is a deep sense of community and belonging and a deepening of one 's faith, perhaps what is happening North America can be a prototype for the IPA and that there are ways we can connect with young people
- ☞ I dream of greater connectedness uniting and lighting our way and world especially in caring for creation and those in greatest need
- ☞ Of the community that God has provided to me within which we can learn to love and listen how to serve with new energy and fire
- ☞ That we all realize that it begins with us and it moves from there. That we become quieter, stiller, and we listen. It gives us that discernment to move ahead with right action.
- ☞ Of prophetic presence of Presentation people that powers imagination, that we use creativity and possibility to move from hierarchy to circle, from exclusion to inclusion, earth aware, sustainable, economical changes, marked by engagement, mutuality, and common good, contemplation as well as action, unlearning as well as learning. It looks like projects, gatherings and change.
- ☞ About Nano's light enkindling the fire of Presentation people and all partners engaging together all of our resources to uplift the dignity of the human person and to sustain our planet
- ☞ That the energy of this Presentation people movement in this room will continue in some form as we move forward. That we find a way to create structures that will allow this energy to continue to emerge and evolve for the flourishing of all peoples, for the carrying forth the charism of Nano, the mission of Jesus so that peace, Justice and hospitality will be known as home to all.

- ☞ along with Nano, that the mission of Jesus and his compassion be given to all in Jesus' name, that he be recognized as the gifts to everyone, that we be true disciples of his Gospel message.
- ☞ That the conference of Presentation sisters can become a conference of Presentation people and annual Presentation people charism awards highlighting ministry and mission projects
- ☞ That Presentation people will truly believe we have a future and that Nano's charism will continue to flourish in the life and mission vowed and non-vowed Presentation people and that we will be energized to make that dream a reality into the future
- ☞ That through Nano's charism we can learn to replace hate with love
- ☞ That the spirit of Nano will continue in the future as our lives have been touched. That we will tell our stories so that the spirit will continue
- ☞ The dream of justice and advocacy for those who are homeless
- ☞ Of the spark that is in this Presentation family of mission charism and hospitality that is alive in all groups – that we make it easy for others to become involved in this dream in a variety of ways
- ☞ For a development of a Junior Presentation person program. Exchange program within ministries that we could learn more about. Building of structure with CPS that could be expanded, larger pieces with more employees
- ☞ That the energy in this room continues to grow and there will be a time when Presentation people is who people want to be and we continue to carry Nano's lantern
- ☞ Of continuing Nano's dedication to education because I believe it will help us make a difference in the areas of need in the world today
- ☞ That each person will be regarded as a brother and sister treated with respect and that every person will have a home and have food. That everyone will be treated with love and respect
- ☞ Of becoming more by inviting friends, family and strangers to join me to widen our tent of our Presentation people
- ☞ That our connections continue so we can continue to share the stories of the sisters so that legacy needed for the next generation be carried forward
- ☞ I share the dream of light and action and fun as we have shared
- ☞ That all of the wonderful dreams we have heard today are able to be brought together with intentionality so that it can be moved forward so this wasn't just a nice gathering
- ☞ An annual Presentation themed retreat that could be virtual or in person
